

Intern/working student (f/m/d) Business Development

We are looking for a motivated Intern/working student (f/m/d) business development who convinces with creativity and enthusiasm. Do you feel comfortable in a dynamic and international team and are you enthusiastic about innovative ideas? Do you want to revolutionize aerospace in NewSpace? Then apply for us.

Responsibilities/Tasks:

- You are involved in the planning, preparation and follow-up of strategic business development activities
- Support in the development of project and program schedules
- Interact with international partners and customers
- Support for writing and submitting proposals for institutional funding programs
- Prepare and review documents for meetings with national space agencies

Requirements:

- Master or bachelor study in industrial engineering or business administration with a focus on business development/sales or related discipline
- Work experience in business development is desirable
- Experienced in writing about scientific topics
- Technical affinity with a pronounced understanding of space travel or mechanical engineering
- Experienced in using MS Office applications
- Fluent English oral and written (all day-to-day activities are performed in English)
- Self-independent, proactive and structured way of working
- Able to perform under pressure

If you would like to become a valuable member of our company, we look forward to receiving your complete application at our career portal

Rocket Factory Augsburg AG
Berliner Allee 65
D-86153 Augsburg
Website: www.rfa.space